The Private Member's Bill to enable the implementation of hudud or the Shariah Criminal Code II 1993 (Amendment 2015) in Kelantan may not be tabled in the current session of parliament.

Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Nancy Shukri (pic) said this was because the government has to table several bills in the current parliament session from March 9 to April 9.

"The Speaker (Tan Sri Pandikar Amin Mulia) has received the Private Member's Bill on hudud but its uncertain whether it will be tabled this time as the government has many bills to table including the bill to combat the Islamic State of Syria and Iraq," she said when postponing the Sarawak Government Retirees Association annual general meeting in Kuching today.

On March 18, Menteri Besar Datuk Ahmad Yakob tabled the Shariah Criminal Code II 1993 (Amendment 2015) to enable the implementation of hudud in Kelantan.

The hudud bill was unanimously passed one day later. – Bernama, March 21, 2015.
