MIC today declared it will not support the private member's bill on hudud, describing it as going against the Federal Constitution.

Its president, Datuk Seri G. Palanivel said MIC shared the stand of other Barisan Nasional component parties like MCA and Gerakan on rejecting the hudud law.

"We oppose and will not support hudud. I will issue my statement on hudud laws after this Dewan Rakyat sitting," he in Penang today.

Palanivel, who is natural resources and environment minister, said Dewan Rakyat Speaker Tan Sri Pandikar Amin Mulia would also issue a statement on the matter after the current sitting. – Bernama, March 22, 2015.
