KUALA LUMPUR, April 8 (Bernama) -- The government is looking for an alternative to MyEG Services Bhd (MyEG) in managing the renewal of foreign workers' permits.

Deputy Home Minister Datuk Dr Wan Junaidi Tuanku Jaafar said the move was taken as a measure to prevent the monopoly by MyEG of online renewal of permits for foreign workers.

"The Government is looking at another alternative to MyEG under the Malaysian Administrative Modernisation and Management Planning Unit (Mampu) but it is not implemented yet.

"There is nothing wrong with MyEG, it is just not to have a monopoly," he told reporters at the Parliament lobby, here today.

Wan Junaidi said in 2012, many companies had presented their products and MyEG was found to have the best capabilities to perform the operations as required by the Government.

MyEG is a concessionaire for Malaysian Electronic-Government (E-Government) and an online application to process the renewal of foreign workers' permits.
