Touching on the Goods and Services Tax (GST) he said the government should improve monitoring the implementation with stricter enforcement authorities to ensure the welfare of the poor and middle income groups.

"The GST implementation earlier has assured that the price of goods will be lowered, but what is happening now is contrary to what was said.

"The situation, is a burden and a source of financial problem to nearly 1.6 million of our members because there are quarters taking advantage of the implementation of the GST," he said.
