KUALA LUMPUR, April 4 (Bernama) -- Three bodies have been found following the helicopter crash at Jalan Sungai Lalang, Kampung Pasir Baru, Semenyih near here this afternoon while the search for three more passengers of the ill-fated helicopter was ongoing.

A spokesman of the rescue team from the Civil Defence Department (JPAM) said the search operation for the other victims was being intensified.

In addition, the JPAM was waiting for the police forensics unit to confirm the identity of the victims, he told Bernama here Saturday.

A helicopter, believed to be owned by a private company, crashed and caught fire at about 4.55pm today. Six people were believed to be on board the helicopter.
