A group of Umno branch leaders in Pokok Sena division want Bukit Lada State Assemblyman Datuk Ahmad Lebai Sudin to apologise to Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Mukhriz Mahathir (pic) for his "quit" remark.

Their representative, Bukit Lada Umno branch chief Musa Ahmad said Ahmad Lebai's remark that Mukhriz should quit as Kedah menteri besar was hasty and done without consultation.

"A state assemblyman who holds no post in the division such as Ahmad Lebai should not issue a statement. Let the Kedah Umno liaison chief make it," he told a press conference in Alor Star today.

Ahmad Lebai was urged to withdraw the remark he made yesterday after attending an emergency meeting of Kedah Umno leaders at Seri Mentaloon, the menteri besar's official residence.

Musa said Pokok Sena Umno division leaders support Mukhriz's leadership at state level and Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak at federal level.

He said Najib and Mukhriz have very good ties as shown at the Kedah Umno Convention recently.

"For the sake of Umno, we hope that Mukhriz will announce support for Najib on April 24," he added.

Mukhriz is expected to issue an official statement on Kedah Umno's support for Najib's leadership after the Kedah Umno meeting in Kuala Lumpur on April 24. – Bernama, April 13, 2015.
