The Sultan of Pahang, Sultan Ahmad Shah, has urged the people in the state to support the current leadership helmed by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak in order to maintain peace and prosperity.

"Najib is a very hardworking leader and I am proud of him. Let us together pray that his leadership prevails and all must back him. Don't callously criticise things which we ourselves don't know about."

He said this to reporters after opening the Pahang Fire and Rescue Department headquarters building at Indera Mahkota in Kuantan today.

The sultan made the comments when asked on current issues including the Rompin by-election on May 5 following the death of the incumbent MP Tan Sri Dr Jamaluddin Jarjis on April 4.

He advised the people to look after the peace and to follow the stipulated regulations during the by-election. – Bernama, April 16, 2015.
