Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin today said that the image of Islam has been tarnished by actions taken by certain quarters with wrong perception of jihad.

In fact, he said reports on the alleged involvement of Malaysians in the so-called Islamic State militant group had also given negative impact to the country's image.

"As such, we (Muslims) should be responsible to clean up the wrong perception and portray the true image of Islam as brought to us by Prophet Muhammad," he said when opening the 58th National Quran Recital Assembly in Kuala Lumpur tonight.

Apart from the wrong perception of jihad bandied about by the Islamic State militants, the deputy prime minister also underlined three other significant challenges faced by Islam and Muslims today – the challenge of globalisation, the spread of deviant sects and the threats of pluralism and liberalism.

However, in tackling those challenges, he said Muslims need to use their wisdoms in order to avoid racial conflict that could destabilise the country's economy, political environment and inter-racial relations.

Also present were Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Seri Shahidan Kassim, Malaysian Islamic Development Department director-general Datuk Othman Mustapha, Federal Territories Mufti Datuk Dr Zulkifli Mohamad Albakri and Federal Territories Islamic Religious Department director Paimuzi Yahya.
