KUALA LUMPUR, May 12 (Bernama) -- National Association of Bumiputera Private Higher Educational Institutions Malaysia (PKIBM) must form smart partnership with Bumiputera corporate companies in efforts to create quality graduates.

The wife of the Prime Minister, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor said the cooperation was important to ensure the marketability of the graduates.

"At present we have several Bumiputera public private higher education institutions (IPTS) that have shown excellent performance and potential compared to non Bumiputera IPTS.

"Bumiputera IPTS must be ready to change for the better and not be left behind in the mainstream of national education," he said when speaking at the 2015 PKIBM annual dinner here tonight.

Also present were Second Education Minister Datuk Seri Idris Jusoh and PKIBM President, Amir Hamzah Md Isa.

At the function, Rosmah also launched the Bumiputera Higher Education Development Foundation Malaysia's PKIBM Education Fund.
