KUALA LUMPUR, May 18 (Bernama) -- Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin said the real democratic process is where the people not only give their mandate to the government to rule but also have the opportunity to draft government policies.

The deputy prime minister said the rakyat, including the undergraduates, had the opportunity to be involved directly or indirectly in drawing up the policies.

"We should be grateful and proud because such democracy exists in our country and the undergraduates are among the groups who have the chance to grab this opportunity," he said before chairing the Meeting of the National Students Consultative Council (MPPK) 2015, here today.

Also present were Second Education Minister Datuk Seri Idris Jusoh as well as several other cabinet ministers including Transport Minister Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai, International Trade and Industry Minister Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed, Ministers in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Seri Abdul Wahid Omar and Datuk Seri Jamil Khir Baharom, as well Youth and Sports Minister Khairy Jamaluddin.

Muhyiddin, who is also the Education Minister, said the government not only adopted an open attitude in listening to the voice of the undergraduates, but also gave a serious view on every opinion presented.
