TOKYO, May 23 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will make a three-day official visit to Japan beginning Sunday.

Malaysian Ambassador to Japan, Datuk Ahmad Izlan Idris said Najib, who is expected to arrive at 8am in Tokyo, would attend a cocktail reception with about 250 Malaysian students and community.

On Monday, Najib and his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor will have a tight schedule, with the highlight being an audience with Japan's Emperor and Empress at the Imperial Palace.

Najib will then attend a round table meeting with 34 captains of industries.

The prime minister will then hold a bilateral meeting with his counterpart Shinzo Abe.

On Tuesday, Najib will deliver a keynote address at the World Islamic Economic Forum (WIEF) Roundtable before departing to Sendai.

Before taking the high speed train to Sendai, Najib will be given a briefing on Shinkansen high speed train and development around Tokyo Station.

In Sendai, he will have a dialogue with students at the Tohoku university before departing home.
