KUALA LUMPUR, April 27 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak was pleased with a huge media turnout at his press conference after the 26th ASEAN Summit's plenary session at the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre.

"It's quite a huge turn-out," a visibly delighted Najib said as he walked past the crowd of media after the press conference ended.

Despite rushing to fly to Langkawi where the next phase of the summit will take place, the prime minister shared a light moment with reporters.

A total of 882 media personnel from 113 local and foreign news organisations have registered to cover the summit.

The figure comprises 586 media personnel from 25 local mainstream media and news portals and 296 members of the foreign media representing 88 organisations.
