KUALA LUMPUR, April 30 (Bernama) -- Served with chicken rice and warm lime juice, the Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Abdul Razak, Thursday joined several TEKUN aid recipients for lunch at Restoren Matahari in Kampung Baru here.

The restaurant owner, Umi Abd Kadir, 51, when met by BERNAMA at her restaurant, related how excited she was as she could not believe the nation's number one leader would step into her restaurant for lunch.

"Actually, I was informed by his aide through a telephone call that Datuk Seri Najib will be having lunch at my restaurant after an Economic Fund for National Entrepreneurs Group (TEKUN) programme.

"Initially, I asked the representative whether he was pulling my legs. But I was nervous and excited at the same time after the call," she said.

Umi said she did not cook any special dishes as she thought Najib will not make it to her restaurant.

On how she served the national leader, Umi said it was simple as the Prime Minister was really humble and did not want any special treatment.

"In fact, he was served with regular crockery just like other customers," she said, adding that she also treated the Prime Minister with kuih talam keladi and seri muka as dessert.

For Umi this is her first time she met Najib and was overwhelmed by the leader's humility.

"He was so friendly and of course, we did not let go the opportunity to take a photograph with him," said Umi.
