KUALA LUMPUR, June 12 (Bernama) -- Malaysia Airlines' flight MH148 from Melbourne to Kuala Lumpur on June 12, 2015 made a turnback to Melbourne Airport.

The Airbus 330, which had 300 passengers on-board who were disembarked, was inspected by the airline's engineers and ground personnel.

"Preliminary inspection reveals no physical evidence of fire externally, and further assessment is underway," said Malaysian Airline System Bhd in a statement today, adding safety is of the utmost importance to the company.

More information would be released when available, it added.
