KUALA LUMPUR, June 19 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has urged Muslims to set aside any disputes and animosity in view of the holy month of Ramadan.

In his latest posting in his blog www.najibrazak.com, today, the Prime Minister said any dispute would not be beneficial but would cause a loss of time and energy.

"In this blessed month of Ramadan, let us take the golden opportunity to repair and improve our deeds in carrying out the commands of Allah," Najib said.

He said fasting was a way Muslims could train themselves to become more firm, disciplined and patient when faced with all kinds of challenges during Ramadan.

"The Prophet has said that in the month of Ramadan, all the deeds of the sons of Adam will be multiplied.

"Hopefully, our deeds are accepted by Allah," Najib said.
