KUALA LUMPUR, June 8 (Bernama) -- UMNO oratory clubs at the divisional level nationwide will help the government explain the 11th Malaysia Plan (RMK11) and the Goods and Services Tax (GST).

UMNO Information Chief Datuk Ahmad Maslan said the clubs, which were chaired by their respective division information chiefs, would hold two talks monthly to scrutinise closely the issues of RMK11 and GST.

"We do not want the issue of RMK11 to sink with other matters so the UMNO and Barisan Nasional Information Bureaus will help the government to explain them," he told reporters after chairing an UMNO Information Bureau meeting here, Monday.

He said, other than the issue of RMK11 and GST, the talks would be interspersed with explanations on additional current issues, which would be conducted by members of the club.

Meanwhile, Ahmad, who is also deputy finance minister, said explanations on issues like 1Malaysia Development Berhad and issues related to former prime minister Tun Mahathir Mohamad would be handled by the party Information Bureau and top leaderships.

"Let the top party leaderships explain them," he added.
