A 3.2-magnitude earthquake hit Kota Belud, Sabah at 7.35am this morning, said the Meteorological Department.

The epicentre was about 25km southeast of Kota Belud and tremors were felt in Ranau, Bernama reported.

Just two days ago, Ranau was rocked by a 5.9-magnitude earthquake where over 200 climbers were trapped on Mount Kinabalu.

Yesterday authorities confirmed 15 deaths. Eight people are still missing. – June 7, 2015.
