Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak said his Singaporean counterpart Lee Hsien Loong has sent a letter expressing the republic's appreciation on Malaysia's efforts in assisting Singapore nationals who were victims of the earthquake in Sabah.

Najib said he had also sent a letter to the Singapore prime minister to convey the sadness and condolences of the Malaysian people on the tragedy befalling the Singaporean nationals who were victims of the quake while visiting Kundasang, Ranau, Sabah.

"Letter from Singapore prime minister expressed gratitude to the federal and state government for the aid and assistance provided to the quake victims," he said in his speech when delivering aid to the victims and next of kin today.

Meanwhile, Najib said he had shortened his trip to Saudi Arabia to enable him to visit Sabah and observe the effects of the earthquake that hit the state.

Besides being given a briefing on the latest situation on the earthquake in Sabah, he also had the opportunity to visit the quarters of the Ranau District Police Headquarters (IPD) to look at the destruction sustained by the premises and visit the occupants of the police quarters who had set up tents at the grounds of the IPD. – Bernama, June 9, 2015.
