KUALA LUMPUR, June 18 (Bernama) -- Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad's presence at the Kampung Baru Ramadan Bazaar, here on the first day of the Ramadan fasting month had drawn a large crowd who were shopping for delicacies for the breaking of the fast.

They had crowded around the former prime minister to take a 'selfie' and to greet him.

Dr Mahathir, who arrived at about 5.30pm, spent about 45 minutes walking through the 300 metre-stretch of Jalan Raja Alang which is among the locations for the Kampung Baru Ramadan Bazaar stalls.

Dressed in a white shirt, the 89-year-old statesman appeared to be ever smiling and ready to please members of the public who wished to shake his hands and to take photographs together with him.
