KUALA LUMPUR, June 19 (Bernama) -- The government will provide food supply, medicine and shelter to all flood and landslide victims in Ranau, Sabah.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak in a posting in his Facebook account today also prayed that the flood and landslide incidents would recover.

"I pray that the situation recovers as soon as possible, God willing," he said.

The number of flood and landslide victims in Ranau has increased to 755 victims from 455 this morning.

All the victims are placed at three relief centres in Ranau community hall (393 individuals from 93 families), Kundasang mini hall (218 from 55 families) and Marakau temporary centre (144 from 30 families).
