KUALA LUMPUR, June 24 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the case of a boy in Banting who suffered serious injuries while playing firecrackers, is very saddening.

"News like this saddens me. Children getting injured as a result of playing with firecrackers. I pray that Allah will lighten their suffering, protect them," he said in his latest posting on his Facebook and Twitter sites Wednesday.

On Monday (June 22), Mohd Azman Syakir Mohd Saizi, four, had his left palm blown off and suffered burns on his chest while playing with a type of firecracker known as 'A-Boom' in Taman Mutiara, Tanjung Sepat, Banting.

The boy is currently receiving treatment at the Tengku Ampuan Rahimah Hospital in Klang.
