PUTRAJAYA, June 26 (Bernama) -- The prime minister's wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor today attended a religious talk and 'tasbih' prayers at Seri Perdana, here.

The annual event organised by the Welfare Association of the Wives of Ministers and Deputy Ministers (Bakti) was held in conjunction with Ramadan and was attended by 250 guests.

Well-known religious speaker Datuk Dr Fatma El-Zahra delivered the talk around the daily practice of reading the Quran and the benefits of the optional 'tasbih' prayers.

The guests comprised members of Bakti, Association of Wives of Civil Servants and Women Civil Servants (Puspanita), Police Family Association (Perkep), Malaysian Armed Forces Charity and Welfare Association (Bakat), and students from the Institute of Teachers' Education, Bangi campus.
