BESUT, June 28 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Sri Najib Tun Razak is scheduled in Terengganu on July 6 for the launch of the 'Syahadah' and breaking of fast programme at Sekolah Menengah Imtiaz in Bukit Keluang here.

State UMNO liaison secretary Datuk Muhammad Pehimi Yusof said Najib would be accompanied by wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor.

During the event, Najib would also present Hari Raya contributions to 1,200 poor children, orphans and people with disabilities in the Kota Putera state constituency.

"The prime minister will also present a computer and a printer each to chairmen of the Village Development and Security Committees in the Besut district," he told reporters after presenting Aidilfitri contributions to orphans at the As Solihin Mosque in Padang Luas here.

Muhammad Pehimi, who is also the State Health, Women and Community Development Committee chairman, said after the programme, Najib and wife, as well as invited guests, including Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahmad Razif Abd Rahman and wife, would join the people of Besut for the breaking of fast, to be held in the school compound.

After that, the VIPs will join the congregation at the Ulul Albab Mosque, Seberang Jerneh, for the Isyak and terawih prayers, he added.

He said Najib and wife would return to Kuala Lumpur after the terawih prayer from the Royal Malaysian Air Force base in Gong Kedak.
