SITIAWAN, June 28 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Sunday joined hundreds of people to patronise the Astaka Ramadan Bazaar, here.

He spent about half an hour going round the food stalls at the bazaar, accompanied by Perak Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir.

Najib, who also exchanged greetings with the traders and visitors, bought some delicacies like agar-agar and roti John. Some people also took the opportunity to take selfies with the prime minister.

Also present during Najib's walkabout at the bazaar were State Secretary Datuk Seri Abdul Puhat Mat Nayan, Perak State Legislative Assembly Speaker Datuk Seri S.K. Deevamany, state executive councillors and a number of assemblymen.

Najib then left for the Swiss Garden Resort in Manjung while waiting for the breaking-of-fast reception with the people and Maghrib prayers at Afiah Batu 3 Mosque in Segari, here.

After that, the prime minister will join members of the Royal Malaysian Navy (RMN) at the RMN base in Teluk Muroh, Lumut for Isyak and Tarawih prayers.

Najib is scheduled to leave for Sultan Azlan Shah Airport in Ipoh later to depart for Kuala Lumpur.
