BESUT, July 6 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today visited the Ramadan bazaar in Kampung Raja here.

The prime minister arrived at 5.25 pm and spent about 20 minutes touring the bazaar which has 200 trading stalls.

He was accompanied by Terengganu Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahmad Razif Abdul Rahman; Second Education Minister and Besut MP Datuk Seri Idris Jusoh as well as state executive councillors and several state assemblymen.

Najib took the opportunity of the visit to chat with several stallholders and bought some food for breaking of the fast.

A stallholder from whom Najib had bought food expressed surprise at seeing the prime minister there.

"I did not want to take any money from the prime minister but he insisted on paying for the food," said Zulkarnain Hassan, 32.

Najib then went to Sekolah Menengah Imtiaz Besut in Bukit Kluang here to launch a religious programme, hand over Aidilfitri goodies and break fast with the people.

At the event, the prime minister is scheduled to hand over Aidilfitri goodies to 1,200 poor children, orphans and disabled people in the Kota Putera state constituency.

He is also scheduled to hand over a computer and a printer to chairmen of village development and security committees in the Besut district.

After the event, Najib is scheduled to join the people at Isyak and Tarawih prayers at the Ulul Albab Mosque in Seberang Jerneh here.

The prime minister is scheduled to fly back to Kuala Lumpur from the Gong Kedak RMAF base in Bukit Puteri.
