KUALA LUMPUR, July 9 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said a full report on 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) would be presented by the auditor-general.

He said Auditor-General Tan Sri Ambrin Buang would make the announcement, which would answer all the allegations pertaining to 1MDB.

"I will not make any announcement. Let him present the report. As prime minister, I will not take anything that is rightly the people's."

Najib said this at a Nur Ramadan programme attended by the Federal Territories Ministry's officers and staff, and UMNO members including veterans at the Salahuddin Al Ayyubi Mosque in Taman Melati, here, tonight.

He also reminded the people against being influenced by the lies circulated in the social media as the truth would prevail.

Earlier, Najib announced some good news for city dwellers in Kuala Lumpur.

He said the government would build 11 split-level parking bays at the People's Housing Projects, at a cost of RM290 million.

For the underprivileged, the government had been working with the private sector under the latter's corporate social responsibility (CSR) programme to build shelters for the homeless at Medan Tuanku and Pekeliling, he said.

Najib said he would be visiting the shelters built at a cost of RM17 million, which would be completed soon.

He said the government had also agreed to sell the Sri Tioman low-cost flats in Taman Melati at an affordable price, to the tenants who had been staying there for the past 20 years.

"The government will do anything that benefits the people because we want to look after their lot just as they will care for us when the time comes," he said.

Meanwhile, 2,000 of 8,500 orphans, old folks, single mothers and special needs individuals in the federal territory of Kuala Lumpur received cash assistance at the function.

Najib, who was accompanied by Federal Territories Minister Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor, also performed Isyak and Tarawih prayers with about 3,000 city dwellers at the mosque.
