PKR Youth will lodge police reports against Datuk Seri Najib Razak beginning tomorrow after The Wall Street Journal (WSJ) revealed that the prime minister had billions of ringgit transferred to his accounts.

Its deputy chief, Dr Afif Bahardin, said the nationwide police reports were to press authorities to look into the allegations by the WSJ and whistleblower site Sarawak Report.

"We want the authorities to launch a comprehensive investigation into this as the allegations are very worrying and we want action to be taken," he said during a press conference at the official residence of the Selangor menteri besar in Shah Alam today.

He added that PKR Youth would also be looking into lodging subsequent reports against Najib with the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) and Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM).

The Wall Street Journal yesterday reported that the three companies had funnelled some US$700 million (RM2.6 billion) to Najib's personal accounts in AmBank Private Banking in Malaysia.

The article, which was also carried by whistleblower site Sarawak Report, said US$700 million (RM2.67 billion) was moved among government agencies, banks and entities linked to 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) into his five personal accounts.

The WSJ report quoted unnamed sources involved in the investigation while Sarawak Report said Gani was aware of the probe.

Najib denied these allegations, saying they were part of a concerted campaign of political sabotage to topple a democratically elected prime minister.

Attorney-General Tan Sri Abdul Gani Patail today revealed that a task force raided three companies linked to funds allegedly channelled to Najib's personal bank accounts, adding that he received investigation papers on the matter.

Gani said in a statement today he had gone through the documents and gave further advice and directives to the task force consisting of the MACC, police and BNM. – July 4, 2015.
