KUALA LUMPUR, July 17 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has expressed his appreciation to those who could not celebrate Aidilfitri with their families as they were on duty, particularly civil servants, security and medical personnel. Via his Facebook status, the prime minister also wished 'Selamat Hari Raya' and expressed his gratitude to them. "Selamat Hari Raya greetings to those who are not able to celebrate the festive season because they are on duty, especially civil servants as well as security and medical personnel. "Your sacrifices are very much appreciated. Many thanks and Aidilfitri greetings," he said. Meanwhile in his Twitter account, Najib also thanked well-wishers who attended the Aidilfitri open house of the prime minister and cabinet members at his official residence, Seri Perdana Friday. "Thank you to all who come to Seri Perdana to wish 'Selamat Hari Raya' and are feted as my guests. My apologies if there are any shortcomings," he said. He also included a 'link' video depicting the merriment at the open house. About 80,000 visitors, including Malaysians and foreign tourists, attended the event which was held from 10.30 am until 4.30 pm. They were feted with an assortment of local special menu such as satay, soto ayam, ketupat and rendang while about 70,000 packs of Aidilfitri goodies were distributed as door gifts. -- BERNAMA
