PUTRAJAYA, July 17 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak joined thousands of Muslims to perform the Aidilfitri prayers at the Putra Perdana Mosque in conjunction with the arrival of the Syawal month, here today.

The Prime Minister who hosted a Aidilfitri Open House with cabinet ministers at Seri Perdana, arrived at the mosque at 1.15pm which was filled with people, including cabinet ministers and dignitaries.

The special Friday sermon was delivered by the chief imam of the mosque, Lukman Hosni.

He urged Muslims throughout the country to continue helping the poor and needy all year round and not just in the month of Ramadan.

After performing the prayers, Najib spent time with tourists and foreign diplomats who took the opportunity to snap pictures with the Prime Minister.
