KUALA LUMPUR, July 20 (Bernama) -- 1Malaysia Development Bhd says any party that can assist investigators should do so under the purview of the law without resorting to "irresponsible and unnecessary" sensationalism.

1MDB was responding to the publication of "various allegations and unsubstantiated statements" in The Edge Financial Daily today.

"We are surprised that these old and unproven allegations are being recycled yet again, when in fact there are multiple ongoing investigations being conducted by the lawful authorities on the issues raised previously," the government-owned strategic development company said in a statement.

The daily's four-page report on 1MDB focused mainly on the joint venture with PetrolSaudi International.

"1MDB reiterates our trust in due process as evidenced by the professional and thorough ongoing investigations being conducted by the lawful authorities," said the company.
