KUALA LUMPUR, July 24 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak hopes the Malaysian selection will exhibit the spirit of the tiger when facing English giants Liverpool at the National Stadium in Bukit Jalil Friday night.

"Tonight, I hope the Malaysian selection will perform full of spirit and determination. Malaysian players, show @LFC our spirit of the tiger," Najib said in a Twitter message at 6.28 pm.

The last time Liverpool played in Malaysia was in 2011 when the squad under Datuk K. Rajagobal gave a sterling performance at the National Stadium before losing 3-6.

On Thursday, The Reds trounced Super League club, Felda United 7-0 in a training match at the National Stadium.

The Merseyside club started their pre-season tour by cowing Thai All-Stars 4-0 in Bangkok on July 14 then beat Australian League club Brisbane Roar 2-1 three days later before defeating Adelaide United 2-0 on Monday.

The Reds will play their final pre-season match in northern Europe against Finnish club, HJK Helsinki on Aug 1.

Kick-off is at 8.45pm.
