KUALA LUMPUR, July 25 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today wanted the Royal Malaysian Police (PDRM) to continue fighting the war against drug offences and abuse.

He said since the establishment of its Special Tactical Intelligence Group (STING), the PDRM had managed not only to find and seize drugs, but had also busted and closed down numerous drug-processing laboratories and crippled drug syndicates.

"Continue fighting the war against drugs!" he posted on his Facebook and Twitter pages tonight.

STING had carried out 15 operations against drug-trafficking syndicates, with seizures worth RM72.63 million over the first five months this year.
