KUALA LUMPUR, July 27 (Bernama) -- The Edge Media Group has filed an application at the Kuala Lumpur High Court to seek a judicial review of the Home Ministry's decision to suspend The Edge Weekly and The Edge Financial Daily.

The Edge Media Group in a statement Monday said the application was filed through their lawyer Raja, Darryl & Loh Advocates and Solicitors.

"We have requested that the application be heard on an urgent basis, but we are unable to provide a copy of the affidavit of our application until the case is heard.

"Given the urgency and public interest, we hope the court will grant us a date very soon," according to the statement.

The publishing permit of The Edge Weekly and The Edge Financial Daily have been suspended for three months effective July 27, over its reports on the 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) issue.
