A photograph of Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin with Johor royalty is doing the rounds on social media after the former deputy prime minister had an audience with Sultan Ibrahim Sultan Iskandar today.

The photograph shows Muhyiddin and his wife Puan Sri Noorainee Abd Rahman, with Sultan Ibrahim, his consort the Permaisuri Johor, Raja Zarith Sofia Sultan Idris Shah, crown prince Tunku Ismail, and Johor Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Khaled Nordin.

The caption on the photograph reads: True leaders don't create followers. They create more leaders.

Johor-born Muhyiddin, who is also Umno deputy president and MP for Pagoh, had an hour-long audience with the Sultan at Istana Serene in Johor Baru this afternoon.

The meeting came after Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak's sacking of Muhyiddin and Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Mohd Shafie Apdal from the Cabinet last Tuesday.

The move was said to have created a dilemma among Umno grassroots who are torn between respecting the two senior party leaders and remaining loyal to the president.

Several Umno divisions have cancelled the invitations they had sent to Muhyiddin and Shafie to officiate their annual general meetings, despite the fact that the duo's positions in the party remain unchanged. – August 2, 2015.
