Kuala Terengganu PAS said today it has severed ties with Kuala Terengganu MP Datuk Raja Kamarul Bahrin Raja Ahmad because he has joined the newly formed Gerakan Harapan Baharu (GHB) or New Hope Movement.

Kuala Terengganu PAS secretary Mohd Soud alias Said alias Mat Ali said the decision was made at a meeting yesterday and was in keeping with a circular on GHB issued by the PAS national headquarters.

"As is known, he (Raja Kamarul Bahrin) was officially declared as the Terengganu GHB chairman at a GHB gathering on July 31 in Jerteh, Besut, and he has accepted the position," he said in a statement.

GHB was set up by several PAS leaders who lost in the party elections in June. The movement has applied for registration as a political party.

Raja Kamarul Bahrin won the Kuala Terengganu parliamentary seat in the general election in 2013 on a PAS ticket, securing a majority of 10,785 votes to beat Datuk Mohd Zubir Embong of the Barisan Nasional and independent candidate Maimun Yusof. – Bernama, August 2, 2015.
