CIMB group chairman Datuk Seri Nazir Razak today posted a picture of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak and Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin's "last supper" together on his Instagram account.

The picture was taken on July 27, the night before Najib announced a Cabinet reshuffle which saw Muhyiddin being sacked as deputy prime minister, at a Hari Raya open house organised by CIMB.

Nazir played host to both of them, not knowing it was to be Muhyiddin's last day as Najib's deputy.

In the picture, all three of them are seen sharing a light moment together.

"One for the history books. Oblivious host to their last supper together," Nazir, who is also Najib's brother, wrote on his account.

The open house took place a day after Muhyiddin's fiery speech at a Cheras Umno annual general meeting which was critical of Najib's handling of the 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) scandal.

His criticism in the AGM led to his removal by Najib, who appointed Datuk Seri Ahmad Zahid Hamidi as his deputy. – August 2, 2015.
