Datuk Seri Nazir Razak took to Instagram again, this time posting a photograph of himself with Bank Negara governor Tan Sri Zeti Akhtar Aziz and International Monetary Fund managing director Christine Lagarde with the caption: "My moment with 2 icons of global finance".

The post by the CIMB chairman, who is the prime minister's brother, has garnered over 650 likes so far.

Zeti has been in the news recently as part of the high level government task force probing debt-ridden state fund 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) and the claims by The Wall Street Journal that nearly US$700 million (RM2.67 billion) was channelled to prime minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak's personal bank accounts.

But two days ago, Zeti got into the spotlight when Inspector-General of Police Tan Sri Khalid Abdul Bakar reportedly said that police would haul up more officers from the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC), Bank Negara and Attorney-General's Chambers (AGC) to give their statements in the probe into leaked information on 1MDB.

The IGP had not discounted the possibility of Zeti and MACC number two Datuk Seri Mohd Shukri Abdull being questioned by the police.

Bank Negara has previously denied its officials had leaked banking transaction details.

Pro-Umno bloggers had named Zeti and Shukri as well as several high-ranking officials from Bank Negara, MACC and the Attorney-General's Chambers as conspiring to bring down the prime minister.

Police are probing the case under Section 124 of the Penal Code for activities detrimental to parliamentary democracy.

On Monday, MACC special operations director Datuk Bahri Mohamad Zin, who has been with the anti-graft body for 28 years, became the sixth MACC officer to be questioned by police under Section 124 of the Penal Code. – August 5, 2015.
