KUCHING, Aug 10 (Bernama) -- The transfer of two senior Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission officers to the Prime Minister's Department announced last week has nothing to do with the investigation into 1Malaysia Development Berhad, Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Dr Ali Hamsa said today.

"It has nothing to do with the investigation of 1MDB," he told reporters after meeting civil servants in conjunction with an Aidilfitri reception here.

The two officers, MACC director of special operations Datuk Bahri Mohamad Zin and MACC director of strategic communications Datuk Rohaizad Yaakob, reported to work at the MACC office this morning.

They were to have reported for work at the Prime Minister's Department today.

Hamsa said he had a face-to-face discussion with the two officers.
