KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 25 (Bernama) -- The Embassies of The United States and Germany here have said that they will observe the Bersih 4.0 public gathering this weekend.

In an email to Bernama, the U.S. Embassy said: "The United States recognises the intended peaceful nature of this protest and supports the fundamental freedoms of expression, association, and peaceful assembly".

The German Embassy said it supported freedom of expression and the right to peaceful assembly.

"Germany champions good governance, human rights and the rule of law," said a spokeswoman of the embassy.

The High Commissions of Canada and Australia declined to comment.

The British High Commission could not be reached.
