KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 3 (Bernama) -- The Malaysian investigators arrived at the Palais de Justice in Paris on Monday for talks with French officials on the latest developments regarding the missing MH370 airliner, according to news agency, Agence France-Presse (AFP).

Quoting its journalist, the agency reported that the five-man team from Malaysia, led by civil aviation director-general Azharuddin Abdul Rahman, arrived shortly before 1200 GMT at France's top court and said a statement would be released at the end of the meeting.

They were due to meet with the team leading the French investigation, including a judge, a group of experts and police, said AFP.

France is leading the current phase of the investigation after a piece of airplane debris washed up on the French island of La Reunion in the Indian Ocean recently.

Flight MH370 vanished from the radar at about midnight on March 8 last year while flying from Kuala Lumpur to Beijing carrying 227 passengers and 12 crew.
