PUTRAJAYA, Aug 4 (Bernama) -- The Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) today held a premier special prayer session, 'Untukmu SPRM' (For You MACC) nationwide, in seeking divine blessings to enable the commission to carry out well, the responsibilities entrusted to it.

The 'solat hajat' here held at the surau of the MACC headquarters, was performed after Zohor prayers and led by former MACC deputy chief commissioner (Management and Professionalism), Datuk Seri Zakaria Jaffar. About 100 employees joined the special prayer.

After the 'solat hajat', Zakaria recited the 'doa mathurat' which was filled with praises for Allah, besides seeking MACC officers to be free of corruption.

Zakaria said the 'solat hajat' was to ask for the commission be given direction and the best destiny in combating corruption.

"We asked for Allah SWT to assist us with what we don't know in future. We also prayed for blessings from Allah SWT for the MACC, and all its officers and their families," he told reporters after the prayer session.

Among the MACC officials present were its deputy chief commissioner (Management and Professionalism), Datuk Mohamad Jamidan Abdullah, deputy chief commissioner (Prevention), Datuk Mustafar Ali, and director of its Investigation Division, Datuk Mohd Azam Baki.
