PUTRAJAYA, Aug 5 (Bernama) -- Three officers of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission today gave statements at the Putrajaya District Police headquarters on the issue of leakage of information on 1Malaysia Development Bhd, said an MACC spokesman.

He said they were MACC Special Operations Division deputy chief Datuk Tan Kang Sai and two other officers who were recalled to provide their statements.

Tan is the seventh MACC officer who has given a statement on the case to the police.

An MACC officer lodged a police report here last Monday to deny that the MACC had leaked a draft charge sheet and also denied that the MACC had leaked information on its investigation.

Meanwhile, a police team was seen entering the office of the MACC Special Operations Division at Menara Prisma in Precinct 3 here at about 7 pm and leaving an hour later in two police vehicles.
