KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 8 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Abdul Razak will make a working visit to Singapore on Sunday to attend the 50th Singapore National Day Parade.

Wisma Putra in a statement Saturday said the Prime Minister would be accompanied by Datin Seri Rosmah and senior government officials during the visit.

It said Malaysia and Singapore enjoyed warm and cordial relations.

"Both countries are committed to maintaining close cooperation in various sectors, including trade and investment, social, education, defence and security as well as people-to-people relations," said Wisma Putra.

In 2014, Singapore was Malaysia's second largest trading partner globally and the largest trading partner among ASEAN member nations with a total trade recorded between both countries at RM194.52 billion (US$59.5 billion).

This year also marks the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between Malaysia and Singapura.
