KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 14 (Bernama) -- The Barisan Nasional (BN) will table a report card on the delivery of its manifesto for the 2013 General Election (GE13) this year, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

The BN chairman said the performance of the BN government in the last two and a half years would be made known to the rakyat (people).

"In the last two and a half years we have implemented various projects and programmes as promised in the manifesto and the time has come, very soon we will be presenting our report card," he told reporters after chairing a BN Supreme Council meeting that lasted two hours at Menara Dato Onn, Putra World Trade Centre here tonight.

Also present were BN deputy chairman Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, Deputy Prime Minister and UMNO vice president Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, BN secretary-general Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor and the leaders of the BN component parties.

Najib said the form and medium the report card would be presented would be determined later.

"We are aware of the promises we made in our GE13 manifesto. We will provide the details on how the report card will be presented later, but be sure we uphold the principle of accountability," he said.
