PETALING JAYA, Sept 16 (Bernama) -- A body, believed to be that of Attorney-General Chambers' Appellate and Trial Division deputy chief Anthony Kevin Morais who has been missing since Sept 4, was found in a drum filled with concrete in Subang Jaya near here early Wednesday.

The body was found at around 6am at the USJ 1 housing estate, Persiaran Subang Mewah, which borders Sungai Kelang.

Police and Fire and Rescue personnel were seen going in and out of the location since early morning and a foul stench could be smelt by pressmen even though only allowed to come up to about 100 metres from the scene.

Kuala Lumpur police chief Datuk Tajudin Md Isa, Kuala Lumpur CID chief Datuk Zainuddin Ahmad, Selangor CID chief Datuk Mohd Adnan Abdullah and Subang Jaya police chief ACP Yahaya Ramli were also seen at the location.

Zainuddin when approached by reporters would not confirm if it was indeed the body of Morais.

He said a press conference would be called at the Subang Jaya police headquarters at 1pm.

Morais was last seen leaving his home at Menara Duta, Kuala Lumpur on Sept 4 to go to his office in Putrajaya in a grey Proton Perdana car bearing registration number WA6264Q.

Police said CCTV recordings had showed his car was blocked by another before he was dragged out and ferried away.
