KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 17 (Bernama) -- The government will monitor the flash flood situation in Perlis and Kedah and will provide aid immediately to the affected residents.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak in the latest status in his Facebook tonight said this included by relocating children and those in high risk areas.

"I take cognisance on the situation in Kedah and Perlis which are inundated by flash floods and am praying all in the two areas are safe.

"The government will monitor the situation and give aid immediately to those affected, especially children and those in high risk areas who have to be relocated immediately.

Heavy rains in the past three days resulted in floods in several areas in Kedah and Perlis.
