KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 5 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak congratulated national diver Ooi Tze Liang who qualified for the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janerio.

"Congratulations Ooi Tze Liang for winning the gold medal yesterday and qualifying for the Olympics Rio de Janerio!#SayaTeamMalaysia," recorded Najib in his Facebook and Twitter Saturday.

Ooi, 21, booked a slot to Rio after winning the gold in the men's 3m springboard event, collecting an overall 484.45 points from six dives, at the 2015 Asia Cup Diving Championship at the National Aquatic Centre, Bukit Jalil, yesterday.

The Penang-born athlete, prior to this, was the sole national elite diver, who failed to qualify for the 2012 Olympic Games in London.

Earlier, two national elite divers, Pandelega Rinong and Ng Yan Yee qualified for the 2016 Olympic Games.
