KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 7 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today wished all the best to pupils sitting for the Ujian Pencapaian Sekolah Rendah (UPSR) assessment examination for three days from tomorrow.

"All the best to the pupils who will sit for the UPSR examination from tomorrow," he said in posts on his Twitter and Facebook accounts.

A total of 455,929 candidates are sitting for the UPSR 2015 examination.

A statement from the Education Ministry said 446,511 of the candidates comprise pupils from government and government-aided schools and 9,418, pupils from private schools.

A total of 8,134 examination centres would be opened nationwide to accommodate the candidates while 49,655 teachers would supervise the examination, it said.
