Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ahmad Zahid Hamidi said today Gen X and Gen Y should cooperate to resolve the various issues facing the nation.

One of these challenges was the colonisation of the mind that caused confusion among Gen X and Gen Y.

"Developing countries have to put up with the colonisation of the mind, and Malaysia was no exception. As such, Malaysians, especially of Gen X and Gen Y, should cooperate and unite.

"I am convinced that we can unite the people of all races, religions and cultures with the spirit of patriotism.

"In the name of patriotism, we can build a nation state united in diversity," he said at the close of the Kembara Kasih Merdeka 2015 programme in Putrajaya.

About 15,000 volunteers of the 1JPJ Young Squad nationwide participated in a convoy as they flew the Jalur Gemilang under the Kembara Kasih Merdeka 2015 programme.

Zahid, who is also home minister, said the federal administrative capital would see 5,959 high-powered motorcycles on Merdeka Day next year.

The deputy prime minister, who is also executive chairman of the Superbikers Association Malaysia, said the programme could raise the spirit of patriotism among the people.

"Motorcycling can enhance unity. Once we are on the bike, we forgo our differences," he said, and suggested that other ministries organise programmes to raise the spirit of patriotism in Malaysians. – Bernama, August 31, 2015.
