Prime Minister declines to answer questions posed by newsmen.

KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Najib Razak did not seem affected by the news that his chief critic, Dr Mahathir Mohamad, quit Umno today.

The Umno president refused to comment on the matter when leaving the Royale Chulan Hotel today after a book launch.

Instead, he just flashed a smile when pressed by reporters for a comment.

Ironically, Najib had touched on Umno and about leaving the party in a poem about his political career, including the advice given to him by his late father, former Prime Minister Abdul Razak Hussein.

“I have never left Umno. Father reminded me to take care of the party. To me, there’s nothing more important than serving the people,” Najib said.

Present were Najib’s wife Rosmah Mansor, Kedah MB Ahmad Bashah, Perak MB Zambry Kadir, Transport Minister Liow Tiong Lai and his deputy, Aziz Kaprawi as well as International Trade and Industry Minister Mustapa Mohamed and his deputy, Ahmad Maslan.

The book titled “Najib Berjiwa Besar: Empat Dekad Menongkah Arus Kepimpinan dan Politik (1976-kini)” talked about Najib’s political career. The book is written by Najib’s adviser Dr Khairil Annas Jusoh.
